GARDEN CLUB FIELD TRIP—MEMBERS ONLY

"A Trip to the Top of the World"

Spend a Beautiful Fall Day Exploring

Langwood Tree Farm

Enjoy a guided one-mile walk through the beautiful woods with owner Colleen, who will share the story of the farm and discuss sustainable forestry, tree care, and wildlife habitat. Bring your questions, enjoy the fresh autumn air, and finish the morning with a relaxing picnic lunch in a truly scenic setting. There will be a fair amount of walking, so please wear appropriate shoes. If you prefer not to walk, there is a spot to wait and admire the foliage. An outhouse and handwashing station are available on the property. This event is free and will take place in rain or shine.

About the Owner*: Colleen O'Neill was named New Hampshire's Outstanding Tree Farmer of the Year for 2023 in recognition of her exceptional stewardship of Langwood Tree Farm. She has transformed the property into a model of sustainable forest management by balancing timber production, wildlife habitat, water conservation, and public recreation. Along with this model she has committed to education and protecting wetlands, expanding wildlife habitat, maintaining public trails, and working to permanently conserve the forest through a conservation easement. She also serves on forestry organizations, sharing her knowledge and promoting responsible woodland management throughout New Hampshire.*
